Tumbler & Rocks is a family owned company located in Alberta, Canada. Our roots are in distilling and in agriculture, and our cocktails reflect our use of high quality, local ingredients. Tumbler & Rocks was founded on the idea that cocktails should be easy to enjoy in the comfort of your own home. Simply crack a bottle, pour over ice, and you've got yourself a delicious cocktail. Our small batch production is proudly managed by head distiller Julia Le, and founder Nathan Flim. Always a cocktail lover, Nathan came up with the idea for Tumbler & Rocks after becoming frustrated with the number of bottles and tools he needed to make quality cocktails at home. At the end of a long day of work, it was easier to grab a beer, rather than make a cocktails from scratch. Already owning a distillery, Nathan decided to create the Tumbler & Rocks brand to make cocktails easy to enjoy at home. Using the high quality ingredients that were already at the distillery, and combining them into craft cocktails, Tumbler & Rocks makes it as easy to enjoy a cocktail as it is to crack a beer.
