Elderflower Liqueur

'The Best Elderflower Liqueur – 8 Bottles Tasted, 1 Winner' – Drink Hacker 2026

"Ingredients stated only include fresh elderflower blossoms. The moderate gold liqueur straddles the line between fruit and florals beautifully, its refreshing peach-lychee palate offering some acidity, a surprising touch of green herbs, and a hint of citrus. It's not too sweet, with a mix of vanilla and orange peel arriving in time for a complex finish. Never blown out in any one direction, St. Elder offers a study in balance that works beautifully on its own, and it was even better in our test spritz, pouring on flavors I didn't find in other renditions of the drink."
