

R.L. Seale & Co. Ltd.

‘Rum Producer of the Year’

-International Spirits Challenge 2019 & 2020!

R.L. Seale & Co. was founded in 1926 by Reginald Leon Seale, embracing the Barbados tradition of fine aged and blended rums. Currently in operation by Richard Seale, Reginald's great grandson and the fourth generation in the family rum business. Richard is most recognized by his work as Master Distiller and Master Blender of Foursquare Rum Distillery, re-opened by the Seale family in 1996. Foursquare's Rums have garnered the title of "Rum Producer of the Year" for 5 consecutive years, along with a significant amount of Rum trophies, gold medals, and accolades from both the International Spirits Challenge and the International Wine & Spirits Competition – two of the most respected competitions.

12-Year Aged Barbados Rum

Distilled and Blended at the Foursquare Rum Distillery in Barbados. Aged in ex bourbon barrels for a minimum of 12 Years on-site at the distillery in Barbados (tropical aging). Molasses is fermented (44-48 hours), then distilled using a blend: double retort copper pot still + twin column (Coffey) still rums.

94 Points - VinePair - "For a quintessential example of aged Barbados rum, turn to R.L. Seale's 12 Year. Crafted at the renowned Foursquare Distillery, it arrives at an easily sippable 46 percent ABV and packaged in an instantly recognizable bottle. R.L. Seale's delivers a captivating profile of rich molasses and warming baking spices, and culminates in a delightful, toasty finish. With equal parts balance and complexity, this expression is a standout on every front."