

WEINGUT MAYER AM PFARRPLATZ

Year Founded: 1683

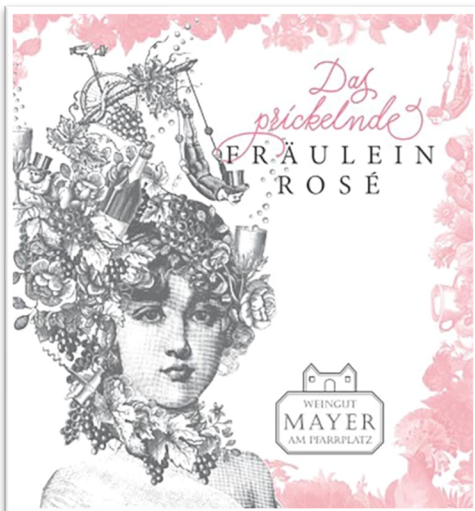

Region: Lower Austria

Owner: Hans Schmid

Fun Fact: Mayer am Pfarrplatz is a historic Viennese Heuriger (wine tavern) and winery in the Heiligenstadt district, famous for its traditional Austrian food, local wines, and connection to Beethoven, who lived and composed in the adjacent house in 1817. It offers a classic Heuriger experience with seasonal buffets, live music, and a charming atmosphere, combining wine culture, history, and Viennese culinary tradition.

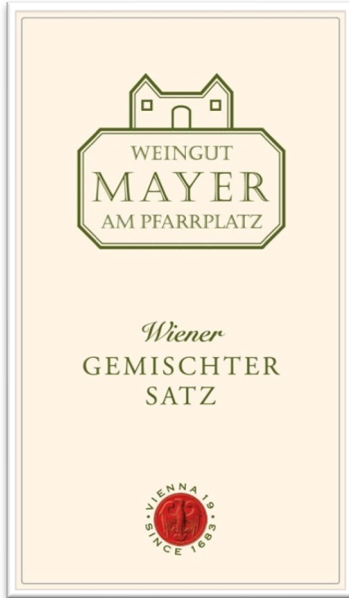

-Certified Sustainable-

This traditional estate on the Pfarrplatz in Vienna's 19th District has been in operation since 1683, vinifying wines that were instrumental in establishing Vienna's reputation as the city whose very name stands for wine. Ancient vineyards planted generations ago. Flysch marl soils with a lot of shell limestone which were formed 3 million years ago and more than 100 different micro-sites with extremely varied soil formations. Warm winds that flow from the Pannonian lowlands, cooling climate from the Vienna Woods and the Danube. All of these unique factors create great wines. Franz Mayer gave modern viticulture a face, and it is not for nothing that he is still referred to as the doyen of Viennese viticulture. Hans Schmid, owner and visionary, who has always been fascinated by the unique and picturesque wine landscape in Vienna. His goal of bringing the winery back to the top of Austrian winemaking was achieved within just a few years. The Mayer winery on Pfarrplatz is now once again considered a flagship of Viennese viticulture, attracting national and international attention thanks to its innovative spirit.

Brut Rosé

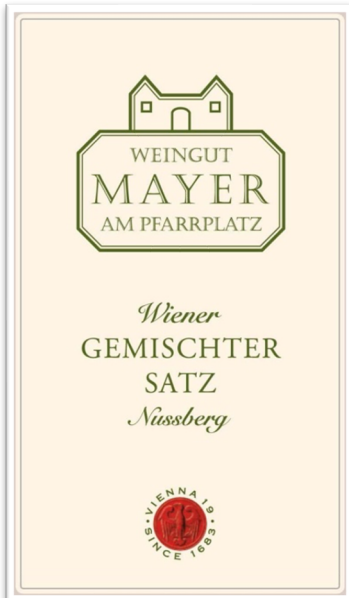

100% Zweigelt. This lively Rosé sparkling wine is characterized by flowery and aromatic notes. Its creaminess on the palate accompanied by slightly sweet berry-aromas and the fine, well integrated perlage distinguishes itself from the very first sip. Especially as an aperitif or paired with antipasti- this sparkling wine is an elegant and fruit-dominated all-rounder!

2024 Wiener Gemischter Satz

Grüner Veltliner, Zierfandler, Riesling, Rotgipfler. This traditional field-blend, medium greenish gold in the glass, shows ripe flavors of green apple and citrus. Delicate peach aromas return to animate the long and fruit-driven finish; very crisp and drinkable.

91 Points – James Suckling – “This crisp and fresh white shows sliced apples, peaches and lemons on the nose. It’s light- to medium-bodied, bright and refreshing.”

2023 Wiener Gemischter Satz Nussberg

Grüner Veltliner, Zierfandler, Riesling, Rotgipfler. Grüner Veltliner, Riesling, Rotgipfler, Zierfandler; hand-harvested, October 16–18, 2013. Collectively picked, pressed and fermented, in stainless steel tanks.

90 Points – Wine Spectator - “Chamomile, nectarine and green melon notes show weight and are backed by a steely, mineral wall. The finish is mouthwatering and firm.”

90 Points – Vinous

2022 Pinot Noir

100% Pinot Noir. Hand-harvested on September 16, 2022. Eight days of fermentation on the skins. Aged in large wooden casks. Elegant crimson color; subtle aromas of raspberry, tobacco and black tea in the nose. Velvety and delicate on the palate with a spicy finish. Flattering and expressive.
