As one of ten children, Rafael Tirado has long been prepared to navigate his way through life. Rafael purchased land in the Eastern Maule Valley in the front range of the Chilean Andes and planted his first estate vines in 1993 on volcanic ash over granite. He currently has five parcels totaling 18ha of vines. His vineyards are legally recognized to be located within the Colbun DO and currently is the only estate producer in the DO. Much of his vineyard is planted in various orientations, some of which are planted in the shape of a labyrinth. Rafael built a small gravity fed winery and a geothermal barrel and bottle room on the property, and currently produces estate wines under the Laberinto and Vistalago labels. We believe these wines to be some of the most classical expressions of terroir in all of Chile, and Rafael Tirado to be a beacon of artisan Chilean Wine.

2025 Cenizas Sauvignon Blanc, Colbún

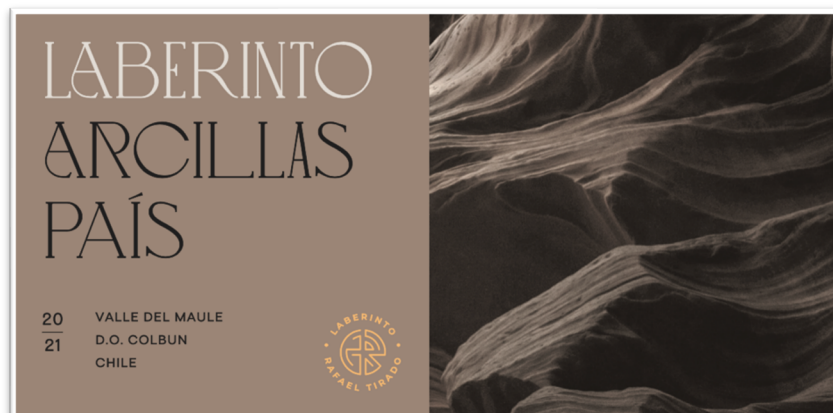

This hand harvested, single vineyard, 100% estate Sauvignon Blanc is from vines that Rafael Tirado planted himself in 1993. Fermented in 100% stainless steel on its lees for 6 months which leads to a very juicy and refreshing wine. The grapes were macerated in the press for 4-6 hours at 11°C. Unoaked.

94 Points – Robert Parker – “Displays impressive depth, breadth and overall power, all of which is wrapped up in a degree of purity and laser-like focus that routinely makes it one of Chile's most compelling iterations of the grape. A subtle, waxy backdrop adds a bit of density to an overall sleek, linear profile, culminating in a stark, minimalist finish that lingers with mineral notes.”

2024 Arcillas País, Colbún

100% single vineyard País planted in 1995. Native yeast. Aged in clay amphora and concrete tanks for 8 months on its lees. Fermented 18 days on skins. Unfined and unfiltered.

93 Points – Robert Parker – “A uniquely coniferous and perfumed example of the variety, revealing an uncommonly pretty bouquet of citrus rind, underbrush, pine needles and alpine herbs. The mouthfeel is silky, slender and elastic, transitioning into a pure, lacy finish that lingers with floral overtones and a faint, grounded touch of petrichor. This is an atypically refined and compelling example of the variety.”

94 Points - Robert Parker – “The ever-present delicacy and detail of the Laberinto portfolio are on display in the 2024 Cenizas de Laberinto Pinot Noir, which aromatically echoes the País bottling with an herbal, floral and elegantly earth-kissed profile. On the palate, it is refined, lithe and streaming before concluding with a nuanced, slightly drying finish.”
